Sacrament of Confirmation

Please keep in your prayers the High School Youth who are receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation this weekend. They have participated, some for two years, in a preparation program centered on Youth Retreats for spiritual renewal and maturity.

We all are looking forward to their on-going contributions to the life of the Parish Community and their deepening Catholic Faith.

With the Gifts of the Holy Spirit (wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord), they can now make their future an act of thanksgiving and worship to God. We pray that they are successful in that commitment.

May God bless us all in that spiritual goal.

Come, Holy Spirit, Come!

From your celestial home, shed a ray of Light Divine!

WORD OF OUR LORD

Why does God love us so much? And why are we able to love others? The answer to these questions is found in the meaning of today's feast. Trinity Sunday celebrates not so much an idea of three-in-one, as the relationship of the Persons of the Trinity with each other and with us.

The idea of the Trinity is based on love. But God's love was so great, God went even further. God created us to be loved by God.

Though human love is not perfect, the love of man and woman can produce another person, a child. The three Persons of the Trinity share one life in God. But through baptism we also share in God's life. Just as parents love to see how their children look like them, so God loves to see the divine in us.

Our decision to love is a response to God's love, and our ability to love is itself a gift from God. The meaning of life, the universe and everything is Love, the love of the Trinity for each other and for us. The question now is, how well do we use that gift of God's love by loving each other? Tom Schmidt

*Glory be to the Father,
Who by His almighty power and love created me,
making me in the image and likeness of God.*

*Glory be to the Son,
Who by His Precious Blood delivered me from hell,
and opened for me the gates of heaven.*

*Glory be to the Holy Spirit,
Who has sanctified me in the sacrament of Baptism,
and continues to sanctify me
by the graces I receive daily from His bounty.*

*Glory be to the Three Persons of the Holy Trinity,
now and forever. Amen*

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Ephrem's Story

Poet, teacher, orator and defender of the faith, Ephrem is the only Syriac Christian recognized as a doctor of the Church. He took upon himself the special task of opposing the many false doctrines rampant at his time, always remaining a true and forceful defender of the Catholic Church.

Born in Nisibis, Mesopotamia, he was baptized as a young man and became famous as a teacher in his native city. When the Christian emperor had to cede Nisibis to the Persians, Ephrem fled as a refugee to Edessa, along with many other Christians. He is credited with attracting great glory to the biblical school there. He was ordained a deacon but declined becoming a priest. Ephrem was said to have avoided presbyteral consecration by feigning madness!

He had a prolific pen, and his writings best illumine his holiness. Although he was not a man of great scholarship, his works reflect deep insight and knowledge of the Scriptures. In writing about the mysteries of humanity's redemption, Ephrem reveals a realistic and humanly sympathetic spirit and a great devotion to the humanity of Jesus. It is said that his poetic account of the Last Judgment inspired Dante.

It is surprising to read that he wrote hymns against the heretics of his day. He would take the popular songs of the heretical groups and using their melodies, compose beautiful hymns embodying orthodox doctrine. Ephrem became one of the first to introduce song into the Church's public worship as a means of instruction for the faithful. His many hymns have earned him the title "Harp of the Holy Spirit."

Ephrem preferred a simple, austere life, living in a small cave overlooking the city of Edessa. It was here that he died around 373. francescanmedia.com/saint-of-the-day

Dear Parishioners:

Our 2023 fiscal year will be completed at the end of this coming June.

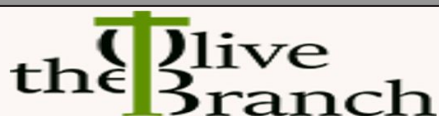

As we prepare to head into a new fiscal year, this is a good time to remind you what your offertory donations mean to the Church and School.

Simply put, your regular weekly offertory is the engine that drives everything that is done at the Parish from worshipping our Lord, to caring for the needy, to investing in the future of our children, and to maintaining our facilities.

We thank you for your generosity and look forward to your continued and increasing support for the Parish.

Scripture tells us that when we give generously, the Lord will bless us. Thank you!

Sincerely, Parish Finance Council

DAD, YOU'RE THE BEST! Tell him he's the best this Father's Day with a wonderful gift from the Olive Branch. Choose a pair of our fun, colorful religious socks or a nice glass paperweight to honor him. And, every Dad who is serving, or served, in the Military will love a copy of our "Armed Forces Prayer Book". It includes the Order of the Mass and features many prayers and devotions to nourish and strengthen the faith of our military personnel at home or overseas.

We also have gifts for any age graduate!

Come see us - we need volunteers. Shifts are only 2 hours per month and it's fun.

Open Sun 9-1 & Wed 9-11 in the Family Life Center. All proceeds benefit St Paul Catholic Church.

Pope Francis met with nearly 1,000 newly-confirmed, or soon-to-be-confirmed, members of the Church from the Archdiocese of Genoa, Italy.

He challenged the youth to stand up against gossiping and fighting, warning that they are works of the devil.

"Above all, be united, don't fight with each other," the Pope said.

"Do you know who invented fighting? Who knows? The devil. The devil wants us to fight so he will be happy."

Before closing the meeting in front of his Casa Santa Marta residence, Pope Francis encouraged those present to pray to the Blessed Mother and said a Hail Mary with the group.

PRAY FOR OUR VBS

Dear God, thank You for going before us as we prepare for Vacation Bible School. Help us meet any need we have of supplies, decorations and volunteers. Provide the opportunity for families far and wide to attend VBS. Thank You for the opportunity to pour your Spirit into the lives of these children in deep and meaningful ways. We pray that above all else You are glorified in our VBS, in Christ. Amen!

Dear Friends at Saint Paul:

Nine years ago, in an early bulletin, I shared the following. It is well worth repeating now:

"There were many different ways that Jesus became "famous" and here is one of them, from the Gospel of John (12:20-22): "Now there were some Greeks among those who had to come up to worship at the feast. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, "Sir, we would like to see Jesus." Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus."

The other story is a heralded one, told in seminaries, about the grand pulpit of an old Gothic church. You will remember that such pulpits, before the invention of amplification (or even electrical supply), are elevated platforms, accessed by circular stairs hidden from view. A preacher would literally "climb into the pulpit" with eyes carefully watching to ensure a steady step. In one such pulpit, there is a plaque written with the following admonition to the preacher as he climbed, pondering his words and the audience he was about to address, watching each step: "Sir, we would like to see Jesus!

I know that what you deserve is far more than I can supply. I thought I could secure your help by sharing with you the "job description" of a Pastor from the Code of Canon Law, the central organizing law book of the Catholic Church."

Can. 519 The pastor (parochus) is the proper pastor (pastor) of the parish entrusted to him, exercising the pastoral care of the community committed to him under the authority of the diocesan bishop in whose ministry of Christ he has been called to share, so that for that same community he carries out the functions of teaching, sanctifying, and governing, also with the cooperation of other presbyters or deacons and with the assistance of lay members of the Christian faithful, according to the norm of law.

Can. 528 §1. A pastor is obliged to make provision so that the word of God is proclaimed in its entirety to those living in the parish; for this reason, he is to take care that the lay members of the Christian faithful are instructed in the truths of the faith, especially by giving a homily on Sundays and holy days of obligation and by offering catechetical instruction. He is to foster works through which the spirit of the gospel is promoted, even in what pertains to social justice. He is to have particular care for the Catholic education of children and youth. He is to make every effort, even with the collaboration of the Christian faithful, so that the message of the gospel comes also to those who have ceased the practice of their religion or do not profess the true faith. §2. The pastor is to see to it that the Most Holy Eucharist is the center of the parish assembly of the faithful. He is to work so that the Christian faithful are nourished through the devout celebration of the sacraments and, in a special way, that they frequently approach the sacraments of the Most Holy Eucharist and Penance. He is also to endeavor that they are led to practice prayer even as families and take part consciously and actively in the sacred liturgy which, under the authority of the diocesan bishop, the pastor must direct in his own parish and is bound to watch over so that no abuses creep in.

Can. 529 §1. In order to fulfill his office diligently, a pastor is to strive to know the faithful entrusted to his care. Therefore he is to visit families, sharing especially in the cares, anxieties, and griefs of the faithful, strengthening them in the Lord, and prudently correcting them if they are failing in certain areas. With generous love he is to help the sick, particularly those close to death, by refreshing them solicitously with the sacraments and commending their souls to God; with particular diligence he is to seek out the poor, the afflicted, the lonely, those exiled from their country, and similarly those weighed down by special difficulties. He is to work so that spouses and parents are supported in fulfilling their proper duties and is to foster growth of Christian life in the family.

§2. A pastor is to recognize and promote the proper part which the lay members of the Christian faithful have in the mission of the Church, by fostering their associations for the purposes of religion. He is to cooperate with his own bishop and the presbyterium (priests) of the diocese, also working so that the faithful have concern for parochial communion, consider themselves members of the diocese and of the universal Church, and participate in and sustain efforts to promote this same communion.

Can. 530 The following functions are especially entrusted to a pastor: 1/ the administration of baptism;

2/ the administration of the sacrament of confirmation to those who are in danger of death, according to the norm of can. 883, n. 3;

3/ the administration of Viaticum and of the anointing of the sick, without prejudice to the prescript of can. 1003, §§2 and 3, and the imparting of the apostolic blessing;

4/ the assistance at marriages and the nuptial blessing;

5/ the performance of funeral rites;

6/ the blessing of the baptismal font at Easter time, the leading of processions outside the church, and solemn blessings outside the church;

7/ the more solemn eucharistic celebration on Sundays and holy days of obligation. (See Vatican.va/archive for the CCL)
