THE WORD OF OUR LORD

GRACE AND ETERNAL LIFE

Moses is a man after our own hearts, for haven’t we all dealt with more than our share of stiff-necked people? Indeed, haven’t we all gotten a little stiff-necked ourselves at times? Complaining . . . impatient . . . quick to anger. How lucky for Moses—how lucky for all of us—that God is exactly the opposite! And we don’t even have to guess about it. The Lord tells us so directly. Accordingly, Moses does what we all need to do. Even with the tablets in hand, he bows down and asks for God’s forgiveness and grace.

Encouraging us to live together in peace—and in God’s favor—the Apostle Paul knows all about this grace, joyfully invoking Christ’s grace on us along with God’s love and the Holy Spirit’s. “Rejoice,” he says. And when it comes to rejoicing, John offers us the gladdest words of all: the assurance of eternal life through Jesus.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — The LORD, merciful and gracious, rich in kindness and faithfulness (Exodus 34:4-9).

Psalm — Glory and praise for ever! (Daniel 3).

Second Reading — Brothers and sisters, rejoice. Live with one another in peace, and the God of peace will be with you (2 Corinthians 13:11-13).

Gospel — God did not send the Son to condemn the world, but to give it abundant life (John 3:16-18).

TRINITY SUNDAY

The dogma of faith which forms the object of the feast is this: There is one God and in this one God there are three Divine Persons; the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God. Yet there are not three Gods, but one, eternal, incomprehensible God!

The Father is not more God than the Son, neither is the Son more God than the Holy Spirit. The Father is the first Divine Person; the Son is the second Divine Person, begotten from the nature of the Father from eternity; the Holy Spirit is the third Divine Person, proceeding from the Father and the Son. No mortal can fully fathom this sublime truth. But I submit humbly and say: Lord, I believe, help my weak faith.

Why is this feast celebrated at this particular time? It may be interpreted as a finale to all the preceding feasts. All three Persons contributed to and shared in the work of redemption. The Father sent His Son to earth, for “God so loved the world as to give His only-begotten Son.” The Father called us to the faith. The Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, became man and died for us. He redeemed us and made us children of God. He ever remains the liturgist par excellence to whom we are united in all sacred functions.

After Christ’s ascension the Holy Spirit, however, became our Teacher, our Leader, our Guide, our Consoler. On solemn occasions a thanksgiving Te Deum rises. The feast of the Most Holy Trinity may well be regarded as the Church’s Te Deum of gratitude over all the blessings of the Christmas and Easter seasons; for this mystery is a synthesis of Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, Ascension and Pentecost. This feast, which falls on the first Sunday after Pentecost, should make us mindful that actually every Sunday is devoted to the honor of the Most Holy Trinity, that every Sunday is sanctified and consecrated to the triune God.

Sunday after Sunday we should recall in a spirit of gratitude the gifts which the Blessed Trinity is bestowing upon us. The Father created and predestined us; on the first day of the week He began the work of creation. The Son redeemed us; Sunday is the “Day of the Lord,” the day of His resurrection. The Holy Spirit sanctified us, made us His temple; on Sunday the Holy Spirit descended upon the infant Church. Sunday, therefore, is the day of the Most Holy Trinity.

NEWS FROM DIOCESE

DIOCESE NAMES NEW SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS
After a national search, the Diocese of Raleigh has named Lydia Reese to the position of Superintendent of Schools. Reese, formerly the Associate Superintendent in the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston, TX, will lead the 29 parish and diocesan schools in Eastern North Carolina, helping equip and encourage students to achieve academic excellence in faith-centered environments.

PROJECT RACHEL
If you desire healing from a past abortion, you are invited to experience the love of Jesus Christ, a Project Rachel weekend retreat on September 25-27, 2020. The weekend retreat is strictly confidential for both women and men and includes discussions, spiritual exercises, the sacrament of reconciliation, a Memorial Service and a Mass of the Resurrection. Participation offers a beautiful opportunity to experience God’s love, forgiveness and compassion. For more information or to register for the retreat, contact project.rachel@raldioc.org or call (919) 852-1021. The cost for the weekend is $200 ($150 for early registration) for lodging, meals and all retreat materials. If you have a financial burden, some assistance is available.

WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER
“God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.” Let God amplify the love in your marriage on the next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend on Sept. 11-13, 2020, in Hickory, NC, and Nov. 6-8, 2020, in Atlantic Beach, NC. Early sign up is recommended. For more information, visit NCMarriageDiscovery.org, or call 704-315-2144.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

SAINT BARNABAS
Barnabas, a Jew of Cyprus, comes as close as anyone outside the Twelve to being a full-fledged apostle. He was closely associated with Saint Paul—he introduced Paul to Peter and the other apostles—and served as a kind of mediator between the former persecutor and the still suspicious Jewish Christians. Paul and Barnabas were seen as charismatic leaders, and were sent by Antioch officials to preach to the gentiles. Enormous success crowned their efforts. (see Acts 14:8-18).

But all was not peaceful and even the best of friends can have differences. When Paul wanted to revisit the places they had evangelized, Barnabas wanted to take along his cousin Mark, author of the Gospel, but Paul insisted that since Mark had deserted them once, he was not fit to take along now. The disagreement that followed was so sharp that Barnabas and Paul separated: Barnabas taking Mark to Cyprus, Paul taking Silas to Syria. Later they were all reconciled.

Saint Barnabas is the Patron Saint of Cyprus. https://www.franciscanmedia.org/saint-barnabas/yprus

PRAYER FOR GRADUATES

_Highfather,
Surround those who are graduating with your grace.
Bless them with hope so that they move into the future with eager and open hearts.
Help them to put the knowledge, skills, and insights gained through their education to use for the good of all humankind.
Inspire them to believe in the goodness of life even when faced with challenges and difficulties.
As they commence with their lives, may they grow ever more grateful and wise.
All of this we ask in the name of Jesus, your beloved Son. Amen_

Please pray for our parishioners who have passed into eternal life. Keep their family and loved ones in your prayers that they may find solace.
Dear Friends at Saint Paul:

As we have begun to celebrate Holy Mass as a community again, the postponed Sacraments of Initiation are one of the great ways we recognize God’s faithfulness in our many needs. The Feast of Pentecost last weekend was a holy and joy-filled milestone. The Saturday Masses were in the Church Sanctuary under threat of thunderstorms. The 6pm Mass was tremendous: please see the names of those listed below who received the Sacraments at that “Pentecost Vigil” Mass (like the “Easter Vigil” which has an expanded and beautiful liturgy all its own). The Sunday Masses were outdoors again with wonderful weather and great crowds of people, all more than 6 feet apart. The added 3pm Mass had been planned all along as a way to share the power of God with our High School candidates for the Sacrament of Confirmation on Pentecost. Please see their names below and please pray for them. There was a distinct sense of blessing from the beginning to the end as we shared our trust and hope in God’s presence in these young men and women.

Peace,

Receiving The Sacrament of Baptism

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION
My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as You have already come, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
Lord, I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.
